

QuickFind™

Why spend extra time searching for and copying cases and legislation cited in documents?

Dear [Display_Name],

With the QuickFind™ productivity tool, you can perform essential research tasks with no need to connect to the Quicklaw™ service.

QuickFind lets you retrieve or note up cases and legislation cited in electronic sources on your desktop OR throughout your organization's intranet — including word processor documents, email messages, web pages, and other electronic formats.

You save further effort and cost by:

- Viewing and printing full-text cases, case summaries, section versions of Canadian statutes, and QuickCITE™ records without having to connect to Quicklaw and search a source
- Storing citations for future case retrieval or noting up
- Printing or saving your History List — QuickFind automatically stores your previously searched citations
- Keeping track of billing for each client with the LexisNexis® PowerInvoice™ service

Click here to download the latest version of the QuickFind software from our web site. Follow the installation instructions.

Know More about Canadian and U.S. Case Law

Automatically link your working documents to the vast collection of Canadian and U.S. sources on Quicklaw with ease, speed, and precision:

- Canadian case law — retrieve cases from the most complete collection of electronically reported decisions of courts and tribunals in Canada, including all decisions reported in print since 1970, as well as all those decided before 1970 that have been cited in a Canadian court after 1970
- QuickCITE™ Case Citator records — validate the authority of your case with over 1 million unique cases and over 2.8 individual treatment relationships
- QuickCITE™ Statute Citator records — validate the authority of your case through judicial considerations of Canadian constitutional documents and the most current revisions of statutes in every jurisdiction New!
- U.S. content — retrieve U.S. case law, and search U.S. law journals and reviews New!
